MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25.—General Don Jose Maria Serrin, former chief of staff of General Mondragon while the latter was minister of war, was arrested today on a charge of being concerned in a plot to create a disturbance in the federal capital on the occasion of the elections tomorrow.

Manuel Madero, a cousin of the late President Francisco Madero, was arrested today at Saltillo on account of his alleged connection with a recently discovered plot in that city against the federal government.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 25.—"Monterey has been captured." This was the message received today by constitutionalist General Lucio Blanco at Matamoros, opposite here. It came from his chief of staff, Major Mujica, who is today at Reynosa, 60 miles from here, on the railroad line to Monterey.

EL PASO, Oct. 25.—Confirmation of the fall of Monterey was received today by the rebel junta here. The city was surrendered at noon Friday after desperate street fighting.

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 25.—General Felix Diaz received today a "request" from the Mexican government to proceed at once to the federal capital. Colonel Manuel Vidaurazaga, secretary to the Mexican minister of war, arrived here on a special train with the invitation, which was virtually an order for Diaz to accompany him to Mexico City.

General Diaz did not decide.

POISONOUS GASES DELAY RESCUE WORK

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 24.—The recurrence of large quantities of carbon dioxide in mine No. 2 of the Stag Canon Fuel Company, wrecked by an explosion last Wednesday, this morning retarded the progress of the rescue work. At 4 o'clock the effort to bring out bodies was temporarily abandoned and the rescue forces turned their attention to securing ventilation. At that time 73 bodies had been recovered. Twenty-three remain the total number of miners rescued alive and hope of finding more has practically been abandoned.

Helmet crews, each headed by government rescuers, are proceeding to reach the division between chambers 18 and 19, beyond which bodies are supposed to lie. Poisonous gases, however, forced them to retreat this morning.

Tries to Dodge Another
Machine; Brakes
Fail

Walter E. White, a wealthy resident of Lodi, with his wife, son and daughter, had a narrow escape from death this morning near Mission San Jose, when a large touring car in which they were riding toward Oakland got beyond control at the top of the Mission road hill and, plunging at a terrific rate, overturned at the bottom.

White, who was seated in the rear of the car, was not injured beyond a few minor bruises. Mrs. White sustained a fracture of the left leg and Miss Olive White had a badly wrenched back. Vernon White, aged 18 years, sustained a fractured left arm and lacerations on his body. He was driving the car and seated with his sister, who is 22 years of age and a school teacher of Lodi. Mrs. White had in addition a badly lacerated scalp and minor bruises about her body.

The victims of the wreck were picked up by residents of Mission San Jose and rushed in automobiles to the County Infirmary on the Foothill Boulevard, near San Leandro, where they were given surgical aid by Dr. C. A. Wills, superintendent of the institution.

LOSSES CONTROL OF CAR.
According to young White, who was driving the big touring car, at the top of the hill he noticed an automobile stalled in the middle of the road below him. He put on his brake and reversed the engine, but the brake failed to hold the heavy machine on the steep grade and it started downward at a high speed. At the bottom it turned over twice. Young White was thrown clear of the car. His mother was pinned beneath. The father was also thrown to the roadside when the car struck the bottom.

White is a wealthy farmer living near Lodi.

Dr. Wills stated that all members of the party would be able to leave the infirmary today or tomorrow. Mrs. White was the most seriously injured and it is probable that she will be confined to her bed for some time.

COURT OF APPEAL UPHOLDS DR. FRASER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—While the Slingsbys are fighting to prove that their boy, Charles Eugene Slingsby, is legitimate and in very truth the heir of the late Rev. Charles Slingsby of Yorkshire, England, the district court of appeals this morning rendered a decision in the case of Dr. W. W. Fraser. The physician was accused of making a false birth certificate, as it was he who officiated at the birth of the babe whom, it is now claimed, is entitled to all of the lands and property of the clergyman. Dr. Fraser's attorney contended that in which the claim was set up that he had not committed any public offense. Judge Dunne sustained the demurrer and Dr. Fraser was dismissed. The district attorney, however, was not satisfied and an appeal was taken, which the higher court has today terminated in favor of the accused physician, thus blocking further prosecution.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The Lakeside burglar, who has been creating a furor among Oakland residents adjacent to the shores of Lake Merritt, may be William Eastin, captured by a girl and a bulldog in the Panhandle district at a late hour last night. His companion, who gives her name as Josephine Bastain, and intimates that she is his sister, although saying nothing about her real relationship to him, if there is one, was brought in by the police this morning and is being held as a witness. She is 17 years old, very pretty and apparently an Alsatian.

HAMPTON ROADS, Va., Oct. 25.—Messengers bearing the dignity and power of the United States, nine battleships, took their leave today of the shores of America for the Mediterranean. Grim in the dull gray paint of their sea cloaks, the war machines nodded a final farewell on the swelling tide of Hampton Roads while the captains of the fleet, headed by Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, received their last instructions and farewells from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt.

The assistant secretary, representing the navy department and the President, came down the Potomac on the yacht Dolphin and took his place at the head of the double column of battleships swinging at anchor in horseshoe formation out across the fairway of the roads.

B. G. Jeffries, former ticket agent for the Santa Fe railroad company at Fortieth and San Pablo, who resigned his position three weeks ago, has been arrested on a charge of felony embezzlement and is being held in the county jail under bonds of $1000 or more and disposed of them through some method devised by himself in an effort to cover up discrepancies in the records. At the time he resigned his position the alleged theft had not been discovered, it is said. Jeffries was then traced to Los Angeles, where his parents reside. When arrested it was found that he had been traveling on a mileage book of the Santa Fe line and that he had visited different parts of the state. He is 39 years of age and unmarried.

SHE PRAYS TO MOTHER NOTE FORECASTS DEED

Note written by Mrs. Millie Drown to her deceased mother before she shot her husband and attempted her own life:

"Precious Mother in Heaven: Forgive me for killing myself. I simply cannot help it. I'm going to lose Archer. He is in love with another woman. Forgive me an--"

ARCHER C. DROWN, capitalist and son of the late Judge A. N. Drown of San Francisco, was found dead in his bed with two bullet holes in his skull early this morning after his wife, Mrs. Millie Drown, had confessed to Drown's brother that she had shot her husband almost twenty-four hours before, after a quarrel over Mrs. Marie Millar, a beautiful woman, who Mrs. Drown accuses of alienating her husband's affections.

Between the time that Mrs. Drown admitted she had shot her husband and the confession she went to the home of Mrs. Millar, 577 Thirty-fifth street, and after talking with her for several hours attempted to shoot her. She escaped from the place before Mrs. Millar could inform the police. Prior to this Mrs. Drown stated that she had attempted her own life, but the bullet went wild.

It was only the fact that last Wednesday night, just prior to a trip made by Mrs. Drown and Mrs. Millar to the Portola celebration in San Francisco, the two women had traded revolvers, that saved Mrs. Millar's life. The revolver she gave Mrs. Drown, and with which the half-demented woman is alleged to have attempted to shoot her, had a safety catch device which prevented the cartridge from being discharged when the trigger was snapped twice by Mrs. Drown in attempting the life of her rival.

Woman's Graphic Story of Her Strange

In an interview this morning Mrs. Marie Millar said: "Drown often said that his wife threatened to kill me as well as himself, but she never gave a reason for it. Mr. and Mrs. Drown were mutual friends of mine, but I was never intimate with Drown, despite the fact that he used to tell me that he was dissatisfied with his home life and was unhappy. I sympathized with him merely as a friend, nothing more than that. Mrs. Drown knew that there was nothing more than that. There was no cause for jealousy.

"Yesterday morning Mrs. Drown came to me. 'You are not angry are you, Mrs. Millar?' I replied, 'why not?' Mrs. Drown repeated that question a number of times and I insisted that I was not angry with anyone in the world. I had told Drown in the presence of his wife that I did not wish him to call and, in fact, I did not want either one to call, as Drown stated once that she threatened to kill me. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Senator Bacon of the committee on foreign relations today took time to attend the Congress Hall dedication, expressed his views on the Mexican situation brought about by the attitude of some European governments, in reference especially to the possibility that marines might be landed. Senator Bacon's view is that if any marines have to be landed in Mexico, they should be American marines.

President Wilson himself was silent on Mexican matters, but inasmuch as Senator Bacon knows the administration viewpoint intimately, it is not unlikely that some of these ideas will be included in President Wilson's forthcoming note to the powers against foreign intervention in Mexico.

Two Disturbers of Alameda's Quiet Make Escape When Officers Appear.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 25.—A telephone call from the Crescent hotel that a strange man was creating a disturbance in the bar room had the effect of bringing the police to the scene.

When Nels Hillford participated in the Portola festival and absorbed the Portola and other spirits, he never thought he would be taken for a crazy man. When he returned to his home he is alleged to have created such a disturbance that Wagoner, residing adjacent and at 1421 Stanton street, put in a call for the police, declaring the man was crazy.

In front of his residence, Hillford was so far from being crazy that he allowed the policemen, McDaniel, Daly and Wagoner to approach his door before jumping from a second story window and making his escape.

C. Schvach, an electrician residing at 2122 Broadway, was arrested yesterday morning by Detective George Brown and charged with doing electrical work in Alameda without a license. He was released upon depositing $25 cash bail.

Interested owners say that the property is for sale and that a new owner would be compelled for his own preservation to remove the building. They say it would then be done without expense to the city. It is also claimed that there is ample room on the sidewalk now in front of the property to accommodate all the people who use it and that the neighborhood would not be benefited in proportion to the expense it would have to pay for the improvement.

Mrs. Dechenne held out for $2,000, but has now agreed to take $1,000 for the ten feet of her property.

From Los Angeles the club will go to San Diego and other neighboring cities, including Santa Barbara, San Jose, and San Francisco.

On account of the Portola celebration Mrs. C. J. Plummer yesterday postponed the party at which she was to have been hostess. It will be held next Friday afternoon.

Miss Lillian Sieger is the mid-term vacation guest of Miss Patricia Kroll at the Kroll residence, 1800 Broadway.

The second of a series of teas being given by Mrs. Harvey Tor was held at the Hotel Grand Central yesterday afternoon. The first of the teas to be given by Mrs. Tor was held a week ago at the Tor residence, Alameda avenue and Grand street.

At a pretty home wedding Thursday evening Miss Lillian Sieger became the bride of Mr. E. J. Slicker. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Slicker, who is the father of the bride and groom.

Miss Lillian Sieger and Miss Katherine Ridgeway will open this season's entertainment at the Forum, Monday evening, October 27th.

Miss Sieger is a well-known contralto, and her success wherever she has played.

After being heard at the Greek Theater Sunday she had the distinction of being the only one playing a part who would be called to play an immediate return engagement.

Miss Ridgeway sang for two successful seasons with Sousa's band and is now coming direct to the Forum from Rector's in New York city.

The engagement of these two high-spirited girls will be a most interesting one, and the character of entertainment that will be furnished throughout the season.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the opening date, the dining room being handsomely decorated with American beauty roses, banked with mirrors with cluster lights, and eight large hanging lanterns, and with pointillist give additional artistic effect to the room.

Richmond, Oct. 25.—The first annual

SCHOOLBOYS TO HAVE MANY ITEMS

Berkeley Board of Education Is Trying to Determine Details of Call.

BERKELEY, Oct. 25.—The Board of Education expects to have in shape in the near future, probably before the end of the year, a bond issue for presentation to the voters of the city.

The condition of the local schools has been growing worse for two years as a result of the heavy influx of population and increase of school enrollment. Last year many of the schools were taxed to their limit and many various measures have had to be resorted to to relieve the situation.

In many of the school buildings, the conditions were equally bad. In the Washington school it was necessary for some of the classes to occupy basement rooms which were not designed for that purpose.

Practically reconstructions. It is presumed that the first of the items provided in the bond issue will be for additions, practically amounting to reconstructions, of the school buildings. This, at such schools as the Whittier, will remove the necessity for portable buildings. A second item is expected to be for the purchase of additional contiguous property for additions to the present structures. A third item is expected to be for the purchase of additional contiguous property for additions to the present structures.

Several sections of the city of most recent development are entirely without school facilities at this time. In the most recent section the children are forced to walk either to the Emerson school on Piedmont avenue between Forest and Garber streets, or to the McKinley school on the corner of the city.

Other parts of the city similarly lack provision, most notable being southwest Berkeley, where there has been a large amount of building in recent years, and where there is no school nearer than the Lincoln, at Alcatraz station.

At the banquet this week of the Chamber of Commerce Superintendents, Morris C. Jones placed before the assembly a plan for a half, though he was not certain but that the needs of the school system might demand a higher amount.

Seeing a light in an upper window, young Seaver entered the house, and immediately went to the telephone to inform the police of the presence of the burglar. While he was talking to the Central Station, the masked burglar rushed into the hall and fled with a package on his head with a bang.

EARTHQUAKE FELT IN BAY CITIES

Moderate Tremor Occurs at 1:48 a. m., But No Damage Recorded Here.

A slight earthquake shock was felt in Oakland and other East Bay cities at 1:48 o'clock this morning. No damage has been reported and the tremor resulted only in awakening many inhabitants.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 25.—The seismographs at the University registered a moderate earthquake shock early this morning. The movement of the ground at this station began at 1:45 a. m. and continued until 1:47:08. The first movement of the ground began at 1:45:48. The interval of time between the beginning of the preliminary tremor and the arrival of the waves of the chief shock was approximately four seconds. From this it would appear that the center of the earthquake lay at a distance of about 10 miles from Berkeley.

The earthquake was felt by a number of persons in Berkeley. It is estimated to have been a moderate shock, but not of the violent type. It was recorded by the east-west component of the Omori seismograph, but was not severe enough to cause the heavy strong motion seismograph which was recently installed here.

DISTRICT MAY BE FIXED AT MEETING

Encinal Avenue Widening the Matter to Again Engage the Council's Attention.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 25.—Fixing of a district for the widening and improving of Encinal avenue, east of Park avenue, is now engaging the attention of the next committee of the city council and street triot will be presented to the committee of the whole of the council. Residents in the district are interesting themselves in the project and it is probable that the same controversy which arose on several other occasions over the improvement will be revived.

City Engineer I. N. Chapman, at the instance of the former council, prepared a map of an assessment district, the boundaries of which were Central and San Jose avenues and Park and Colma avenues. This district covered a large area and the assessment was made on the basis of the value of the property. It was claimed that the assessment was a main artery of the city that the improvement should be paid for by the entire city.

The same map will probably be presented to the new council and a similar controversy may arise.

The effort to purchase property along Encinal avenue to effect the widening was another case of delay. The present council, however, as stated upon condemnation proceedings and it will probably be necessary to fight the question of the value of the land to be taken in the courts.

BOARD OF EDUCATION SUSTAINED BY JUDGE

VALLEJO, Oct. 25.—Superior Judge Latimer of Contra Costa county, sitting in place of Judge Buckles, has handed down a decision in the case of J. R. Whitaker, James Topley and William A. Latimer, et al., vs. the Board of Education, in removing Albert M. Armstrong of San Francisco as City Superintendent of Schools. This is the last of a series of cases brought against the Board of Education by Armstrong, who was deposed following a year of stormy opposition on the part of the teachers in the school department. Six months ago Armstrong filed a resolution charging against the board, which he accused of misappropriation of funds. The board's action in this matter was sustained by Judge Buckles. Then followed the suit for reinstatement and back salary on mandamus proceedings. Judge Latimer has had the case under advisement for six weeks before arriving at a decision. He rules that the School Board was legally authorized to terminate Armstrong's services at the end of the year's time.

CRAMPS, HEADACHE, BACKACHE,

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"I was always tired and weak and my housework was a drag. I was irregular, had cramps so bad that I would have to lie down, also a distressed feeling in lower part of back, and headache. My abdomen was sore and I know I had organic inflammation."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have helped me wonderfully. I don't have those pains any more and I am all right now. There are a great many women here who take your remedies and I have told others what they have done for me."—Mrs. CHAS. MCKINNON, 1013 N. 1st St. W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Women who are suffering from these distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve women's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

CITY TREASURER SHOWS 'EM HE CAN BE A MARSHAL, TOO

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 24.—The marshal is out of town, but let roughnecks beware. At the first hint of a brawl or disorder City Treasurer W. J. Gannon will close his store and sail out armed with the marshal's revolver, baton, handcuffs and last, but not least, badge of office. Gannon was called to handle a case yesterday, when a fishmonger was said to be peddling without a license.

The town treasurer didn't have experience in handling unlicensed fishmongers and almost wished Marshal Perata were back to take the load off his shoulders. Deputizing as city marshal had promise of being rather an exciting job, at least so the town treasurer thought as he went after the fishmonger with a paraphernalia fit to scare even the most desperate holdup. Gannon felt if his shooter was easy in the holster and reassured himself that the handcuffs were handy as he approached to tackle the peddler. Surrounding the fish cart was a group of townsfolk and the city treasurer recognized that his reputation as a peace officer was at stake.

"Got your license?" he demanded of the fishman.

"Why, that's Billy Gannon! What's he got to do with licenses?" said one in the crowd. The crowning moment was at hand. Back flew the lapel of the city treasurer's coat and the afternoon sun scintillated from the star of office pinned to his breast. "Didn't know you had the marshal's job, did you?" the bystanders as Gannon brought all his "legal" knowledge to bear on the unlucky salesman who had dared to invade the town without a license. The fishman was inclined to be abusive at first, but melted away before Gannon's forensic skill. The treasurer had won.

TESTIFIES AT TELEPHONE PROBE

Mayor Cotterill of Seattle Appears at Government Inquiry.

SEATTLE, Oct. 25.—Mayor George F. Cotterill was a witness yesterday at the hearing before Special Assistant Attorney General Constantine J. Smythe in connection with the government inquiry into the alleged telephone monopoly, and stated that it was his belief that the independent Telephone Company could have turned its property over to the city of Seattle. He felt, he said, that the company was under a moral if not a legal obligation to do this instead of allowing itself to be absorbed by a competitor. He stated his belief that the city would have been willing to take over the property at a fair price and establish a municipal telephone.

FAVORS MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

When asked if he would have been in favor of having the city take over the property had it been sound on its $2,200,000 investment, he said he would.

Mayor Cotterill declared the service in Seattle had deteriorated since the combination. During the period of the telephone monopoly, he said, the service had been better than it is now. He stated that the independent companies were competing. Reviewing the entry of the independent company into the field he said he believed it would have been a benefit to the city. He stated that the independent company was not as good as it had been when the two companies were competing. Reviewing the entry of the independent company into the field he said he believed it would have been a benefit to the city. He stated that the independent company was not as good as it had been when the two companies were competing.

FOUR PEOPLE KILLED IN FIRE AT FACTORY

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A gas oven in which the metal was being enameled, on the top floor of a six-story factory building in the city, exploded yesterday, killing four persons. More than a score of others were injured or burned in the fire that succeeded the explosion, and some of them may die.

The identity of the dead was not known until many hours after the bodies had been removed to the morgue. Three of the killed were women. All were workers in the building.

Searchlights played on the ruins last night, while firemen sought for more bodies, which it was thought might have been overlooked. The District Attorney's office began an investigation. About 200 persons were employed in the building, which was occupied by manufacturers of machinery, mirrors, clothing and other goods.

The escape of some of the trapped workers was aided by the fact that their clothing ablaze they climbed out through flame-swept windows into fire escapes and dropped to the sidewalks. Many were badly injured from the drop from upper floors. Spectators beat out the flames from their clothing.

CALEB POWERS 'TOO POOR FOR POLITICS'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Representative Caleb Powers, who came to the West End improvement company and the Kentucky prison, where for years he had conducted a fight for his life, growing out of the killing of Governor Goebel, will retire at the end of his term.

I am not financially able to stay longer in the game of politics and play it as the times demand," said the Congressman.

"The game is strenuous and life destroying. Any statement that I am retiring because of ostracism of members of Congress is false.

"With members of the Democratic party, who are my friends, I never sought nor denied, I have been treated respectfully and courteously by all members."

CASE OF BANK IS ARGUED UPON BRIEFS

STOCKTON, Oct. 25.—Arguments on briefs in the civil action of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank against the Realty Construction and Mortgage Company, the West End improvement Company and the Title Insurance Company of Los Angeles were heard yesterday morning by Judge Plummer. The action is one wherein 253 cases are being tried at once.

Cy Moreing and Will Moreing, contractors of this city, assigned a claim to the Farmers and Merchants' bank, for street work done in the Harrell tract. The bank filed action for $35,000, that amount being alleged by the contractors to be done and payable for street work done in the tract. The defendant companies are the holders of mortgages against this tract, hence suit is brought against them.

TESTIFYING CONVICTS ATTACKED IN SING SING

OSSING, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Several Sing Sing convicts who testified before a Westchester county grand jury in White Plains yesterday in connection with the fire that destroyed the prison mat shop in July, were attacked and beaten when they returned here last night. One of them was stabbed and was wounded roughly until guards interfered.

The fire was investigated by the grand jury of the fire that was followed by a mutiny of prisoners. It was suspected at that time that the flames were of incendiary origin.

WRESTLER IS KILLED.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Yusuf Mahmoud, a Bulgarian wrestler, who met a number of American matmen, including Frank Gotch, by whom he was defeated, was killed by a band of Bulgarian bandits in the mountains near Silistria, his home, according to a story told by two Turkish wrestlers who arrived here yesterday.

Mahmout was a petty officer in the Bulgarian army in the late war, and, according to their story, went to the town to draw some money to pay for the men in his command. Sixteen bandits, learning the purpose of his trip, waylaid him on his return, but because Mahmoud had procured only orders, instead of gold coin, they shot and killed him. Mahmoud's death occurred three weeks ago.

DISCOVERS SECRET OF REFURBISHING PATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The Happiest of the men on board the Pacific Mail liner Acapulco, arriving from Mexico ports a few days ago, was Dr. R. T. Freeman, who has been successful in growing hair on the bald dome of his head, which had resembled a billiard ball in smoothness for more than twenty-five years. Proud was the old-timer in the service with the success of a preparation of his own which he has been experimenting and the result is easily visible even with the naked eye.

Dr. Freeman is now in his sixty-ninth year and he has been running to the Orient and to other parts out of San Francisco for so many years that the memory of old-timers on the water front runs not the contrary. His bald dome has been a source of irritation to him for nearly a generation and now that he has solved the problem of growing hair on bald spots, he is indeed a happy officer.

Another claim that the spray medallion has made is that it looks much like John D. Rockefeller, although he says his digestion is much better than that reported by the oil magnate.

DUKE WILL FARM.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Duke of Marlborough, whom Consuelo Vanderbilt married, is putting into effect his plan to make Blenheim Park produce good stuffs. The duke yesterday started a steam plow working on a thousand acres of turf land in his famous estate, his idea being to help England to produce her own food supply. The land now under plow was formerly used as the annual training ground of the Oxfordshire Yeomanry brigade.

TWO KILLED WHEN INCLINE CABLE SNAPS

THURMONT, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Elmer Butler and Amos Howell were killed and a dozen other men seriously hurt when a cable snapped on a mountain railway near Thurmont yesterday. The men were riding on a truck, which, when the cable broke, tumbled over a cliff.

COLONEL POWELL DIES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Colonel Lou W. Powell, a mining operator of Los Angeles, died suddenly of heart failure here yesterday in a taxicab in which he was riding with his friend, Dr. S. S. Crow of California. Colonel Powell was a member of the California Club of Los Angeles and of the Toltec Club of El Paso, Texas.

"Terrible Sufferer for 10 Years of Redding, California, Had Suffered a Thousand Deaths."

Geo. H. Mayr: I have been a terrible sufferer for the past 10 years. Not one doctor could tell me what the trouble was. I have a weak liver and I would vomit every morning and my stomach would bloat up like a balloon. I never could wear corsets. Seven years ago one of our doctors said that the stomach had gone all through my system. His medicine nearly killed me. I left for Los Angeles and doctored there and still kept on with the same spells. I have suffered a thousand deaths, so I will tell you now what Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy did for me. (She described at length how low she was down.) I think it would be a Godsend if it were in the market. I thank you very much, Mrs. Fanny Hanksen, 311 East St., Redding, Shasta Co. Cal.

"Your Medicine Cured Me."

Geo. H. Mayr: Your Wonderful Stomach Remedy is all you claim it, in my opinion. Your medicine cured me. Wish you a Merry Christmas. Yours very truly, H. W. Huns, 618 West 4th St., Los Angeles, Cal.

"Certainly a Wonderful Medicine."

Geo. H. Mayr, Esq. Enclosed find check for two bottles of your Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. I sent to three drug stores in town to see if they kept your remedy. Please send right off. It is certainly a wonderful medicine. Mrs. John Sigrist, 1549 4th St., Santa Monica, Cal. Mar. 13, 1913

"Most Pleading and Surprising Results. Thought I Was Going to Die. Was Afraid to Eat."

Geo. H. Mayr: I received Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and took the same with most pleasing and surprising results. As you was so kind to continue the treatment, I got my local druggist to obtain your remedy from San Francisco. My trouble has been principally gastric with gas coming up every time I ate. I was afraid to eat. I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die. I was so afraid to eat, I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die. I was so afraid to eat, I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die.

"Have Told Lots of People About Your Remedy."

George H. Mayr: My wife and I have both taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and both are well now. Your medicine is fine and we have some yet in the house, and have told lots of people about it. If I should get sick, I would send word for some more. Thank you for your good medicine. Yours truly, R. W. Gray, Fruitvale & Hays, hold Goods, 5818 Moneta Ave., Los Angeles, Cal. P. S.—I have your name so I can tell others. Jan. 11, 1913

"Sick 6 Years—Now Feels Like a Different Person."

George H. Mayr: Your Stomach Remedy has helped me wonderfully. I thought I was going to die. I have been sick off and on for six years. The first year I had it I went to see four doctors and four treatments, which helped me for only a short time. One of those doctors said I had chronic gastritis of the stomach & dyspepsia, and that he would have to use the stomach pump on me, which would mean my death. I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die. I was so afraid to eat, I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die. I was so afraid to eat, I was so bad at times I thought I was going to die.

"Prominent Physician Says."

Sept. 18, 1911:
My wife took medicine as per your directions Saturday with wonderful result. I have recommended you to several of my friends. I have practiced medicine 20 years and I can assure you that your remedy is greatly superior to any I have used. Ernest Vincent, M. D.

Blunder Worse Than a Crime.

While Huerta is making faces at us across the Rio Grande, our government has been compelled to assume a protecting attitude toward Mexico. While the brutal despot who claims to be president of Mexico is sending insulting messages to Washington, President Wilson is notifying the European powers to keep their hands off Mexico and allow the Mexicans to settle their own quarrels and work out their own salvation.

And President Wilson is right, for Huerta is not Mexico nor the Mexican people. The Monroe Doctrine should not be abandoned because a petty tyrant having usurped power presumes on the friendship of the American people for their Mexican neighbors.

Huerta is one of the crosses we have to bear in performing our role as protector of the political integrity of the American continent. We are bound to protect Mexico from European invasion for the reason that we have made it a cardinal tenet of our national policy to prevent foreign poaching in this hemisphere.

President Monroe proclaimed the doctrine which bears his name when he notified the Holy Alliance of Europe that it must keep its hands off this continent. At that time the British government backed up Monroe's declaration. Since then the Monroe Doctrine was effectively asserted when France was ordered out of Mexico by Seward during Johnson's administration and when Cleveland compelled Great Britain to arbitrate the Venezuelan boundary dispute.

Lord Salisbury contended that the Monroe Doctrine did not apply to Great Britain because great areas on this continent were under the British flag when the doctrine was declared.

Now we find Great Britain giving the United States more embarrassment than any other European power. A bumptious ambassador has put in a blundering finger in the pie when he should have kept his hands off, and thereby aggravated a situation already delicately acute. If England is allowed to butt in we cannot very well say that Germany and France must keep out. Let them once come in and Mexico will be dismembered and divided among the European powers in payment of indemnities claimed on one pretext or another.

The United States cannot afford to permit anything like that. We do not propose to take Mexico ourselves, neither are we going to let the European powers take it.

Therefore we are standing guard over the country while Huerta gnashes his teeth at the United States and fulminates about preserving an independence he has destroyed as far as he has been able to destroy it. But for the attitude of our government, Mexico would be garrisoned by foreign troops today. If it should relax its posture of firmness, Germany, France and England would land soldiers in Mexico within a week. Sir Lionel Carden has made a distant possibility an imminent probability. He has thrown gunpowder on the fire in Mexico, and has brought on the danger of a general conflagration. He is an ass, of course, but an ass in such a position to do much harm. As the London Daily News says, he should be recalled at once. He has strained the relations of the two great English-speaking nations and made the relations between the United States and the other European powers far more delicate than they have been. It may be that his foolish action will finally force the United States to intervene in order to prevent similar action on the part of some other power.

In resenting the stupid action and bumptious talk of the British Ambassador, President Wilson will have the hearty approval and backing of the American people without regard to party affiliation not less than President Cleveland had it when he sent in his Venezuelan message.

The Sacramento Sunday News seems to have overlooked the fact that the amendment to the Federal Constitution requiring United States Senators to be elected by popular vote has been ratified by two-thirds of the States and is therefore an operative section of the Constitution. In California a primary will be held to determine who shall be the party candidates. At the general election the voters will designate the popular choice for Senator. The Legislature will have nothing to say about it. The popular vote is no longer advisory, it is final.

Senator Ben Tillman wants President Wilson to "run a freight train over opponents of the Glass currency bill. Senator Tillman apparently does not know that this is a representative government and that Congress is the law-making power. His notion that the President should run Congress is a Mexican idea. He does not think Congress has any right to differ with the President. Huerta dissolved the Mexican Congress and imprisoned the members who disagreed with his policy. Senator Tillman seems to think President Wilson should do something of the same sort in this country. When he first entered the Senate he wanted to pitchfork Cleveland for disagreeing with Congress.

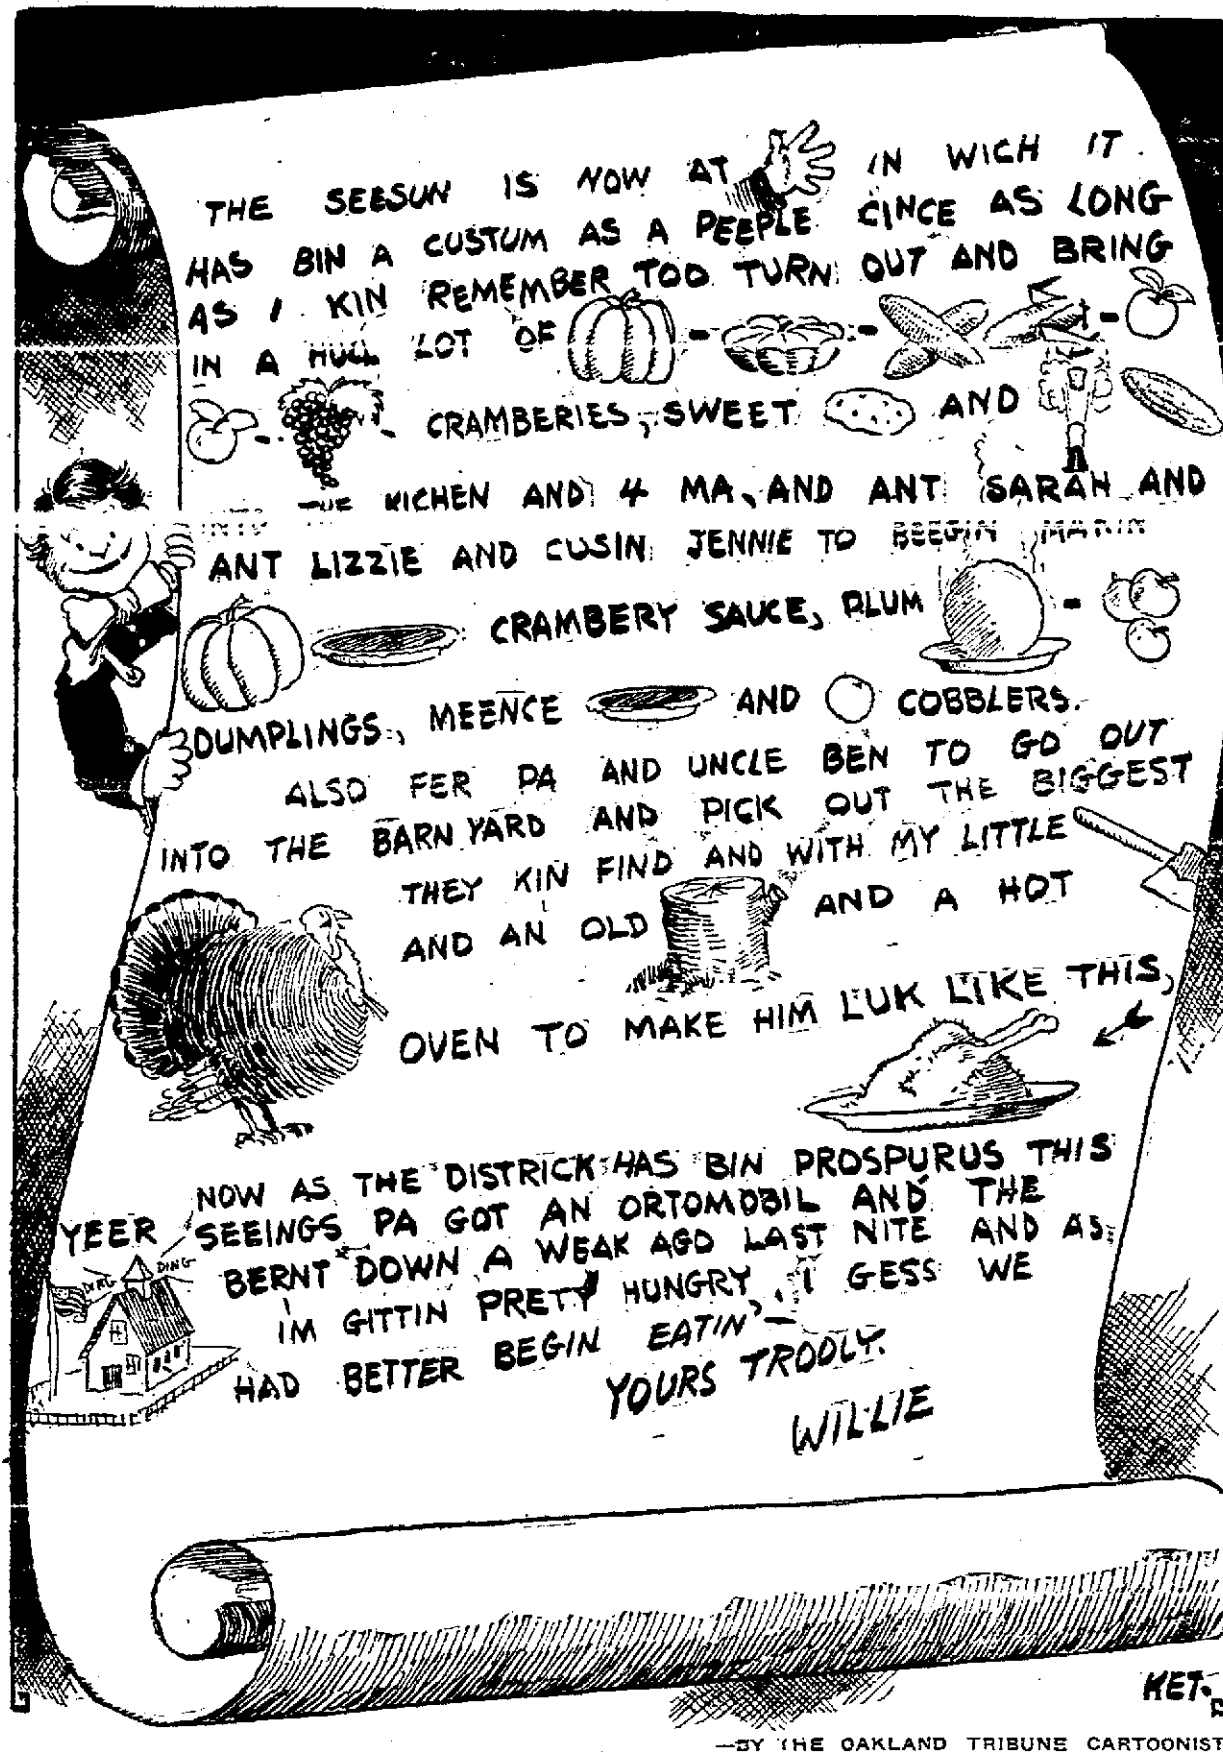

Some of our contemporaries refer to Martin H. Glynn, who has succeeded William Sulzer as Governor of New York, as a Tammanyite. Mr. Glynn is not now and never has been a member of the Tammany society. He may be hand in glove with Tammany now, but in past years he has been at times arrayed against Tammany. He is a resident of Albany and his paper has never been a Tammany organ. William Sulzer, on the other hand, has been a member of the Tammany society ever since he began to take a hand in politics. He has always been a Tammany man and was the first simon pure Tammany man to be elected Governor of New York since John T. Hoffman.

One of the speakers at the Tarver banquet in San Francisco said Congressmen Baker, Church and Kettner, being Democrats, had more influence with the present Congress in staying off legislation injurious to the industries of California than the Republican members of the delegation. Which is true; but if the Republicans had a majority in Congress there would be no need to send delegations to Washington to plead against hostile legislation. We did not have to beg Congress not to inflict injury on our industries when the Republicans were in power.

Democrats have moved loyalty to avert the harm done to this State, but it should not be forgotten that the harm came from the Democratic party. It is Democratic conduct that has placed us in jeopardy.

Huerta has got into the country, but she is not getting the American goods.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Southern California and the Exposition.

The Pasadena Star makes complaint that the trans-Tehachapi section of California is being unfairly treated by the directors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition. It adds, however, that the matter can doubtless be adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned without friction. Here is the grievance as stated by the Pasadena journal:

"The seven counties of Southern California are well within their rights in insisting that they have adequate space in the California building at the San Francisco exposition for their exhibits, and that they shall not be assessed inequitably for the exhibitional space they occupy."

While the southern counties are entitled to a fair field and even terms at the exposition, it is proper to say that they have had equal opportunity with the other counties in the State. If they have not been allotted adequate space it is because they have not applied for it, and they are to be charged precisely the same prices other counties are required to pay for floor space. The southern counties are not asking for a fair deal, but for special consideration.

The difficulty in getting adequate floor space for the trans-Tehachapi counties is no fault of the exposition directors. The southern counties held off from making reservations in the California building till other counties in the State had reserved nearly all the floor space. It was a case of first come, first served. Not only was due notice given the Southern Californians, but they were urged to make their reservations when they had the pick of the building. The charge for floor space was the same for all counties. No favoritism was shown in any direction.

Always the exposition directors have been anxious to see the southern counties amply represented, and would strain a point in their favor rather than do anything to their prejudice or which might cause friction and ill-feeling. California would not be fully represented at the exposition if the southern counties did not make a complete exhibit of their resources.

Probably the Pasadena Star has been misinformed in some particulars. It is a sensible newspaper, and we cannot conceive that it would desire to create a wrong impression. If it will only take the matter up with the directors of the exposition we are confident it will be convinced that there is no intention to be unfair to the southern counties or to discourage them from making exhibits. Doubtless it has been misled by some mischief-maker. The exposition directors want to be fair to everybody, and they are particularly anxious for the cooperation of the people below Tehachapi.

California defraymen are to feel the effect of the Underwood tariff. The Underwood law reduced the tariff on butter from six to two and a half cents a pound. The reduction is sufficient to let foreign butter enter this market. A shipment of butter is already on the way to San Francisco from New Zealand, and the price of California butter has dropped two cents a pound. The district represented by Congressman Kent is a heavy producer of butter. His constituents in Humboldt and Mendocino counties should feel especially grateful to him for voting to reduce the price of their product.

"As between Heney and Rowell, we prefer Rowell," says the Santa Cruz News. But it will not be Hobson's choice. Like the Santa Cruz News, THE TRIBUNE prefers Rowell to Heney, but it sees no reason to restrict the choice of a Senator to two undesirable candidates.

BREEZY BITS

Children naturally try to catch up with tomorrow, while older folks would mostly like to edge back to yesterday.

"Are you a grammarian?" a man asked Church White today. "I do not care to be insulted; I'm a Missourian," replied Mr. White.

"Now, dear, don't believe all of the gossip you hear at a hen party about religion and history," said a man to his wife last night. Isn't he a Mean Thing?

When you admit someone did better than expected, it isn't always to be construed as a compliment.

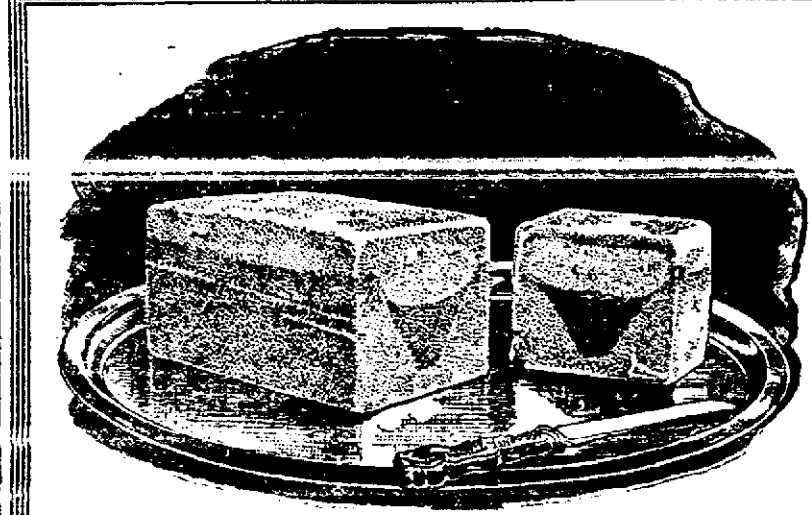

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

"Many a husband is a sorry ex-bachelor. And many a true word is spoken with lying intent."

Some folks never settle down until after the earth is sodded above them. No wonder so many girls are giddy, if love really makes the world go round.

Fortunately for the style factories, women have no annoying sense of humor. A man never makes a bid for notoriety when he does his duty.

The average man expects a pound of gratitude in exchange for an ounce of charity.

ITALY ON EVE OF GENERAL ELECTION

Campaign Most Active; Six Million Persons Expected to Vote Sunday.

Socialists Making Fiery Campaign, But Efforts Neutralized by Split.

ROME, Oct. 25.—The campaign for the general election, which will take place on Sunday, is most active.

to the Italian people. It is estimated that about six million persons will vote Sunday, three times as many as voted in 1909. The Socialists are making a fiery campaign, but their efforts are being neutralized by splits in their party. The Republicans also are divided, half of them favoring and half opposing the conquest of Libya by Italy.

Candidates of the Clerical party are running in nearly 60 constituencies, but the Osservatore Romano, desiring to reiterate the impossibility of the Clerical party being represented in the chamber of deputies, publishes a statement, evidently inspired by the Vatican, saying that the designation
"Catholic candidates," as given to certain persons standing for election, is inadmissible, even if their principles deserve the support of Catholics, which is allowed in some constituencies under certain circumstances and under prescribed rules.

This statement is an important one, being an official admission of the prohibition of Catholics to vote except in those constituencies in which they will be permitted to support either a purely Clerical candidate or a candidate whose principles and individual opinions are guarantees that he will not oppose religion or morality. What the Vatican strongly prohibits is that the deputies to be elected shall be considered to form a Catholic or Clerical group for the election of which the Holy See will be held responsible.

CLOSER RELATIONS NEAR, SAYS FORMER PRESIDENT

Roosevelt Outlines New Era of Stability for South Americans

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 25.—Relations between North and South America are certain to become much closer in the future; the development of South America will be the most striking growth feature of the twentieth century; the development of North America was the most striking growth feature of the nineteenth;
the only desire of the United States towards its neighbors of the western world is to see them stable, orderly and prosperous—such are the highlights of Theodore Roosevelt's first speech in South America, delivered at the government university here.

Every American nation, Colonel Roosevelt said, had reason to congratulate itself upon the stability and prosperity of its sister nations. Any country, he continued, whose people conducted themselves in stable and orderly fashion could place among the nations of the world a practical friendship of the United States.
Colonel Roosevelt's speech might have been an absolute equality in the responsibilities and development of this doctrine, as far as the interests of the western hemisphere as a whole are concerned.

It must be made a continental and not a dual-lateral doctrine. It should be treated as already such, as far as concerns all American nations sufficiently advanced in stability, solidity and potential armed strength—that is, all of our nations sufficiently stable and orderly to achieve a better solution of some of the most vital problems of popular government than any that has yet been reached in any part of the world.

"The ideals of all of us are substantially the same. We believe in fair dealing among nations as among individuals.
We believe in self-government by the people, which necessarily means government by a majority, easily changing as the majority changes. We further believe in using the government in the manner which will most surely aid in bettering the condition of the average man and woman who make up the bulk of the nation. We have none of us more than measurably realized these ideals within our own borders, and we are all aware that in any part of the world, no matter how far away, there are men and women who are suffering from the lack of fundamental necessities of life, and each nation among us can do its share towards improving the condition of these people."

SOON TO REACH LEVEL.
"It is not too much to expect that here in the New World, where the burden of the world's population is increasing, and where the fundamental necessities of life are so lacking, that the nations of this continent shall dwell together in good will and mutual respect and helpfulness. When once this level has been reached, each nation will strive with sincerity, earnestness and common sense to solve the problems of fair dealing as among the men and women within its own borders, and it will thereby lay the foundations for the only peace permanently worth having, the peace of justice and of righteousness."

Each of the nations to which we belong has something to learn from, and something to teach to, the others. I believe that in the era which is now opening the republics of Latin America will be able to teach much to the people of my own country. The Latin American peoples possess many qualities which it would be well for us of the North to develop.
Their unquestioned superiority in intellectual brilliancy and logic will enable them, when once they have secured the internal peace and governmental stability to achieve a better solution of some of
the most vital problems of popular government than any that has yet been reached in any part of the world.

YOU SHOULD KNOW THIS IF YOU PLAY BRIDGE.

With the organization of the many bridge clubs—with the invitations out for bridge afternoons come the question, "Must we play nullo in auction?" and here is the answer from one of the greatest experts in America:

"The backbone of auction is bidding that, auction is bridge.

"Now, suppose auction had originally been made so that red cards were the only ones on which a player might bid. We would have played the game; we would have loved it; but it would really have been only half a game, because half the cards

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE MAKES NEW PLANS.

The Woman's Exchange has made a new departure by opening the winter's business with a special display, to which they have invited their friends and patrons.

The exchange is progressing in

All the money received into the exchange goes to the consignors and for the improvement of the business—in the pack, (the black ones), had no auction value. Imagine the widened horizon when black bids became possible!

"Up to a short time back, high cards were the only ones on which it was possible to bid; we played the game; we loved it; but it was only half a game, because half the cards in the pack are low. At last, we are offered the chance to make them bidable.

"Don't play pained auction just because you have always played it! Keep your eyes open for wider opportunities, and embrace them when they come. Learn nullo! And take my word for it, they are spreading like wild-fire.

"You can't avoid them. They are the most important subject in the auction world today, and will be for some time to come. They are the most discussed theme, wherever auction is played. Learn to play them right, and then see what you think of them!"

Here in Oakland, which is a great auction center, you must learn to play "nullo," or nobody will want to play with you when you find yourself at an "auction" party. You are apt in this respect only does the exchange differ from the usual methods employed by the regular stores. The directors and managers receive no returns whatever from the sales.

Exchange articles are always unique in taste and character and our Woman's Exchange is one to proud of being classed among the best in this country.

Many who are already making their holiday selections will find it to their advantage to look in the exchange during the last week in October, beginning the 27th. The private tearoom will be filled with beautiful new dolls and hand decorated china, while a splendid assortment of fresh novelties and useful articles will be on display in the main store.

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

The home coming of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Gallagher was looked forward to with great anticipation by their many friends in this city, who were disappointed to learn that they would not be able to visit their old home this year. Instead, the Gallaghers will sail from New York this coming week for England where they across the bay and many were present from east bay circles. The doll show was one of the largest that has ever been held and dolls of every description were to be had.

NEWS FROM THOSE WHO TRAVEL ABROAD.

Many interesting news notes come from travelers abroad this autumn. President and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler have been recently in Southern Europe, and President Wheeler sends word that he has quite recovered his health. The Wheelers expect to sail for America in the early winter, and they will be in Berkeley for the Christmas holidays.

The Misses Maud and Isabelle O'Connor have many friends around the bay, coming as they do from one of the pioneer families of the state. They are now making a temporary home in Munich, after having spent the summer and early autumn in traveling extensively. They went abroad in the spring with Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs.

The Wakefield Bakers are motoring in France, having made Tours their headquarters. They have greatly enjoyed the chateau country, and they will spend most of the autumn in interesting trips in Southern France.

The Francis Carolans went over to London attracted by the royal wedding of the month. Their plans are unsettled, but their friends hope for their return to Burlingame for the winter.

Mrs. Joseph Redding and her daughter, Miss Josephine Redding, are very fond of life in Europe, to the regret of the many friends of the Reddings here. Miss Redding is a very stunning girl, who won much admiration at our Brazilian ball. She wore many stunning costumes also at "the dansants" at the St. Francis.

Mrs. Redding and her daughter have gone East, and they are to leave for Europe on the Rotterdam which sails November 7.

Mrs. James Otis, Miss Frederika Otis, and Miss Ernestine McNear, who sailed from Southampton last week, have arrived in New York. Mr. and Mrs. George McNear were there to greet their daughter, and on the dock was also the latter's most intimate friend, Miss Helen Bertheau of San Francisco. Miss Bertheau went East with Miss Marian Huntington, who met her mother, on the latter's arrival from Europe.

The McNears, the Huntingtons, and Miss Bertheau expect to be in San Francisco for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Oelrichs was hostess at a luncheon last Wednesday in honor of her sister, at which her other guests were Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Henry Russell, Miss Elizabeth Russell, Mrs. Leonard Wood and Miss Janetta Crocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt Proctor, (Flora MacDermot) are now in New York, and to the regret of many friends they are planning to spend the greater part of the winter there. Mrs. Proctor has been very ill this autumn, and it is hoped that the change of climate may prove very beneficial to her.

Mrs. Frederick Van Sicken returned to her home in Alameda last week, after an absence of several months abroad. Dr. and Mrs. Lyman and their small daughter, are coming out to California next month, and they will spend the winter at the Fairmont.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. A. Miller also arrived from New York this week, having placed their daughter Miss Flora Miller at school. The Millers will be established as usual at the Fairmont for the winter.

HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION PLANS THEATRICALS.

The Children's Hospital Association, which has been so very successful in planning entertainments, is Several prominent young girls are to be in the cast, and the homes of the patronesses will be announced in the near future.

CENTENARY OF VERDI WILL BE CELEBRATED.

A large number of guests will no doubt be at the Eboli Club on Tuesday for the notable event, the "Centenary of Verdi." The musical program taken from Verdi's works has been planned by Madame P. If the musical afternoons prove a success, many prominent matrons who are interested in the quartet will endeavor to make them permanent. There will be a long list of patronesses for the affair. On their return they will make their home in San Francisco, where the groom is located in business. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kidwell and well known in musical circles, being an accomplished musician and vocalist.

According to Miss Scholok's story, she and five others who were quarantined at Pago Pago after arriving from German Samoa, were subjected to a number of indignities.

"For twelve and a half days," said Miss Scholok, "we were thrust on a little island situated in the harbor and surrounded by two small rooms. For twelve and a half days we were given nothing to eat or drink except such things as we managed to beg."

COTS NEEDED TO REST 'TROTTERS'

The War Department Asked to Furnish Beds During Texas Festival.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Grim-visaged officials of the war department shook their heads today when told that upon their co-operation depended the success of a big turkey trot party down in Cuero, Texas.

It happened this way. The "trot," set for November 18-21, is to be so mammoth a frolic that hundreds of natives with fine Thanksgiving birds are going to swarm Cuero from all the countryside. Accordingly the war department was asked to loan 400 to 500 army cots, upon which out-trotted trotters could rest between frolics and on which overfed Thanksgiving celebrants likewise might find repose.

The cots are in the custody of the adjutant general of Texas just now and the war department's permission is all that is necessary to start them toward Cuero. The matter is under consideration.

Fair left on a three months' honeymoon through the West Indies.

When asked if she thought that the stage makes matrimony precarious, Mrs. Fair replied that she did not. Fair is a member of the stock exchange at New York.

CARE OF THE FACE

By LILLIAN RUSSELL
(Copyright, 1913, By Lillian Russell)

AT an afternoon reception recently, where all society attended, I had occasion to watch a number of interesting women as they lined up to be presented to the hostess, as they met and conversed with friends, as they fared, and as they finally made their adieus.

As a rule women are rather charming under such circumstances, and if they are not bored or rude, they appear at their best. It is naturally a pleasure that pleasure brings a joyous look into the face, which illuminates the countenance of the ordinary woman or man. That goes without saying. But there is another woman, one who on such occasions, the woman with the overworked face; the woman to whom even a slight remark is a melodrama. When she spies a friend at a long distance she squints up her eyes, and pinches her whole face into a grotesque smile, which she means to be recognition. The ordinary hand shake to her is a tragedy. When she talks of the simple topics of the day she twists and squeezes the muscles of her face until her features are disfigured.

Naturally the lines which are formed from overworked muscular facial movements quickly become permanent, and the tired muscles allow the face to sag, as they say.

I would not advise extreme facial repose, for such a face becomes hard in expression and may appear stupid. But I would advise control of the facial muscles. That is done entirely by thought. If you are anxious to see something, drive out the fear of not seeing it. Just say to yourself, "It will be all right, I need not strain my eyes until they are tired. I will see it." Just that thought will relax the strain upon the muscles around the eyes, and a trustful, peaceful expression will take the place of that distressed, pinched one.

When you are talking do not let anxiety take the place of thought nor distort it. Keep a calm mind. Just think to yourself, "Everything is all right. I am all right, and you will be all right. Those tired features will snap out and lines will disappear." Why, I saw one little woman whom I knew to be under 30 years of age, whose little face fairly resembled a hickory nut, so full of lines, and creases, and hard muscles. When I spoke to her it seemed to me a thousand muscles in her face worked at the same time. Just the "how do you do?" made her look painfully distressed and nervous. But I am sure she was glad to see me.

Remember: Be kind to your face, for your own sake. Thus you will be doing a kindness to your friends.

MISS E. T.: Thick lips often come from mouth biting or biting the lips. Use a little will power and break yourself of this beauty destroying habit. It not only thickens the lips but ruins the texture, making them rough and colorless. Hold the lips more firm and cultivate decision of character. Here is a formula which will help you to reduce thick lips: Mix one ounce of cold cream in a double boiler, using no more heat than is required to keep the mass in a fluid state. Add one gram of tannin in powder and one gram of chopped alkali and let it stand for five hours. MUSIC CHARMS ALL

Combination One of Best Ever Assembled in Oakland.

Resplendent in their gaudy uniforms, bright fezes, and headed by the bands which are touring the state, the Shriners arrived today, to make Oakland theirs. The patrols of four temples in California, together with the great bands, massed together, on their "Hands Around the State" tour, today were guests of the city. With a great parade and a concert this afternoon at Idora Park, the Shriners celebrated their first day in Oakland. A concert tonight and two more tomorrow will conclude their visit here.

Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning the patrols and bands of Al Malah Temple of Los Angeles, Al Barh Temple of San Diego and Islam Temple of San Francisco arrived in Oakland, at the Fourteenth-street station. Here Aahmes Temple was ready to greet them with music and cheers.

The parade was quickly formed, and within a few moments Oakland knew that the Shriners were here.

The varied ranks of the Shrine Shriners followed their way through the business streets, bands and drill teams bearing banners of the order and singing the praises of California, proclaiming that the Masonic order was here to boost for the Golden State. City and county officials, prominent business men and citizens of every walk of life gathered at the depot to meet the Arab patriots as they arrived. The reception tendered the state boosters by Oakland is declared to be one of the most enthusiastic they have met with on their journey.

Under the leadership of their captain, the patrols formed Maltese crosses, the initials of the different shrines, and wound in and out in their

RUBBER STAMP
HALTS STATE
BUSINESS

Jordan Refuses to Attest Signature Until Directed by Attorney-General.

Will Require a Concrete and Definite Opinion Before Accepting Facsimile.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—The failure today of Attorney General Webb's office to furnish Secretary of State Jordan with an opinion on the legality of Acting Governor Wallace's name being affixed by rubber stamp to executive documents, kept state business at a standstill for another day.

Jordan refused to attest the rubber stamp signature until he is directed to do so by the attorney general.

Private Secretary McCabe, in the governor's office, said: "No state business will be delayed in the governor's office. If the secretary of state desires to hold it out the responsibility is his. I am in touch by wire and telephone with Acting Governor Wallace and the secretary of state will not be asked to attest any document not authorized and approved by the acting governor."

The other soloists heard at the concert included Mrs. Margaret Davis-Hughes, pianist; L. A. Larson, baritone, and Frank Helle, flugel horn. Urging the support of Oakland to the great tour, Mayor Frank K. Mott has issued the following proclamation: "A whirlwind tour of the state is being made by the massed Shrine bands and the combined patrols for the purpose of raising funds to secure the Imperial council session of Shriners for San Francisco in 1915 and to boost California throughout the East. The coming concertals call for the hearty support of the people, not only because so much time, effort and money have been given by the Oakland committees to insure the success of the undertaking, but also because the bands are composed of high-class musicians who are deserving of the fullest patronage."

Tuesday's Meeting in San Leandro Expected to Be Stormy.

Creek as Social Barrier Will Be the Object of Discussion.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 25.—Will meet Tuesday's meeting of mothers at the grammar school help bridge the social gap across San Leandro creek or will it merely widen the chasm? One section of the town thinks the feud between the north and south ends of the town may be aggravated by an attempt to form another mothers' club, while others are inclined to the belief that there will be an attempt to bolster up the differences that exist.

What will be the next development in the Mothers' Club row is the question asked in every quarter, from the inner precincts of the fashionable Alta Mira Club to even the men. San Leandro is exercised as perhaps it never was before over a social feud. San Leandro creek, as the dividing line between the north and south sections of the town, has been invested with more importance as a social division than it ever was as a physical. "North of the creek" and "south of the creek" has become a significant distinction since a faction of the Broadmoor Mothers' Club attempted to have residents in the northern end of the town barred from membership in an attempt to make the club "exclusive."

The stand to be taken by the Broadmoor Mothers' Club is also a moot question. The club is apparently divided into two factions, the one comprising the women who would have the club "exclusive" and those who favor no restriction on membership. Referring to the next meeting of the Broadmoor Mothers' Club, Thursday, November 6, the official notice of meeting advises members that "it will be a strictly business meeting, with only the members present." The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. V. Rider, a prominent member of the club.

Great Mass of Immaterial and Irrelevant Matter Prolongs Prosecution's Efforts.

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 25.—While public interest in the trial of Mendel Beiliss on a charge of murdering Andrew Yushinsky, has not abated it is significant that in his chief counsel, Yara Techerak, connection with the case. Much of the time of the court yesterday was occupied with the reading of depositions of Karavayeff, a notorious criminal now undergoing a sentence of exile, who assisted former Chief Judge Krasovsky in his investigations of the case. They added nothing of importance to the evidence already adduced.

A long debate took place concerning the incorporation into the record of the copy of a letter addressed to Karavayeff by the trial judge when he was in prison in January 1912, and which was seized by the prison authorities. It consisted in the main of an incomprehensible jumble of words, the tendency of which was to discredit Karavayeff. The mass of irrelevant material that is being introduced at the trial is visibly wearying the judges and boring the jury.

NO DANGER TO CANAL
FROM TREMORS, OPINION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Little danger, if any, to the Panama canal exists from earthquakes in the opinion of Rev. E. T. Dyer, of Georgetown University, a recognized authority on seismology. In a published statement today he takes exception to the alarmist views of certain scientists. He cannot see that the conformation of the earth at Panama can lead to the conclusion that earth convulsions are dangerous to the canal.

CEREMONY WAS QUIET AFFAIR

Date Had Been Set for October 28; Nuptials
Hastened

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Germany, so say the cable dispatches, is covering a bit today, for Emperor William is furious. His anger has, as if by intuition, permeated the lesser nobles of the land and made for all a day of intensities.

And it is all because Miss Nancy Leishman has married the Duke of Croy in an isolated little Catholic church at Geneva, Switzerland.

Miss Leishman, handsome, talented and wealthy, had won the duke with a love that means something. The duke, a man of decided opinions, likes and dislikes, determined that the American girl was worth a "kingdom and a crown." He wooed, won and he is now married, the emperor of Germany to the contrary notwithstanding.

Few of Miss Leishman's American friends were aware of the day set for the marriage ceremony. The intimates of the daughter of the former American ambassador to Germany knew the secret, but the lady's closest confidants, especially the German girl, were comparatively few. The date for the wedding was fixed for October 23, but the anger of the kaiser seemed to be absorbed by indignation. It was too close to the Duke of Croy for comfort and he and his prospective bride decided to abandon all ceremony and marry as soon as the proper arrangements could be made.

Thus the wedding of yesterday occurred and mayhap the kaiser will be forgiving and the incident prove a soothing one, after all, for even so stern a man as the ruler of the great German nation.

Miss Leishman and her mother arrived in Geneva last night from Paris by motor. Miss Leishman's sister, the Countess Gontardbyron, Sir Irvin Lauchlin, secretary of the British embassy, and Mrs. Lauchlin will arrive today, as will the Duke of Croy's mother, the Dowager Duchess of Croy, the duke's two brothers and several of his friends, including Count Nogli Apponyi and Prince d'Arenberg.

RE-DEDICATION OF CONGRESS

Building Where First National Legislature Met Is Restored.

President Wilson and High
Officials of Nation Participate.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Congress Hall, in Independence Square, the building where Congress met from 1790 to 1800, was re-dedicated today. The ceremony was presided over by President Wilson, the chief justice and associate justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, members of the Senate and House of Representatives, ambassadors from foreign lands and the governors of the original thirteen states participated in the ceremonies.

The spectacular feature of the celebration was a big parade of soldiers and patriotic societies.

The program includes an address by President Wilson and the orator of the day was Champ Clark, speaker of the national House of Representatives. After a formal luncheon came the parade with President Wilson near the head of the line. As the President approached the historic hall a chorus of 100 voices greeted the nation's chief executive with patriotic song.

The old building is small, having a width of 50 feet and a depth of about 75 feet. For this reason 750 persons could be crowded on the first floor, where the lower house of Congress met.

During the exercises today President Wilson sat in the chair occupied by John Hancock when he presided over the Congress that met at the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It was the first time the chair had been used since President Grant requested the privilege of sitting in it in 1876.

Frank Miles Day of Philadelphia made a brief statement concerning the restoration of the building. The following is a summary of his address by Speaker Champ Clark and the address by President Wilson, who stood on the rostrum of the house where Washington delivered his farewell address, followed.

As the ceremonies came to an end a salute of 21 guns was fired by the warships in the Delaware river.

The President expects to travel directly from Swarthmore to Mobile, Ala., passing through Washington late tonight and arriving in Mobile early Monday. He will be there only a few hours, addressing the Southern Commercial Congress and then reviewing a parade of fraternal organizations and schools.

Hennings, accompanied by detectives, walked along the railroad track until he found a marked telegraph pole. Then he paced off six steps and began to dig with a spade, turning up the explosive.

THE PORTOLA TENNIS STARS IN COURTS

The Portola tennis championships opened this morning in Golden Gate Park at 10 o'clock with a large audience. The juniors occupied the courts this morning. Maurice McLoughlin, the sensational California star, is coupled with Dr. Sumner Hardy against John Strahan and Clapper Griffin.

An interesting match is sure to result when Lindley Murray, the Stanford University champion, meets Willie Davis, the University of California crack. These two racket wielders are considered to be the best university players in the State. William Dorman, senior, and Longwood, New York State, and Pacific Coast championships, will play Ed. Potrett, who with Johnston holds the Pacific Coast doubles title, in the other single match.

In the afternoon the invaders won 5 up and 4 to play. Frank Kales took Robin Larn's place in the latter three-man match. Without any apparent emotion, both Ray and Vardon played their usually steady game, negotiating difficult shots with ease and confidence. In the fourth round, but four holes were won by the American golfers. An open medal-play 36-hole tournament has been arranged for today, in which the professionals from the different Northern California clubs will play Amateur players of California can also take part. Percy W. Seligson, president of the California Golf association, has planned the players.

LOCAL MEN NO MATCH FOR GOLF STARS

Once again did Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the English golf professionals, astound coast audiences by their clever manipulation of the clubs, easily capturing the matches on the San Francisco links yesterday. Robin Hynie, Vincent Whitney and Jack Neville went down to defeat at the hands of the Britishers in the first round.

TUG-O-WAR CHAMPIONS WHO MEET OAKLAND TEAM

The Swedish tug-of-war team which holds the coast championship and will line up against a picked Oakland team tomorrow.

FOLLOWERS OF TUG OF WAR

this city and San Francisco are taking unusual interest in the match, which will take place at Shell Mound Park next Sunday.

and a strong aggregation picked from among the foremost Swedish societies of Oakland. The event will be the principal athletic feature of the annual picnic and outing of the Swedish-American Club.

The San Francisco team captured the Pacific Coast championship in the international tournament held last July. Since then it has never been defeated. The Oakland team, which will oppose it next Sunday, took the measure of the San Franciscans at the Swedish-American Club's annual picnic last year.

Captain Aug. Johnson of the San Francisco team has had his men training faithfully for the past two months in anticipation of the pull and they are in the best of condition. The team will be composed of the following: Captain Aug. Johnson, Otto Anderson, G. S. Peterson, Charles Elmer, Emil Sorell, H. Schmitter, J. Nelson and Gustave Lovgren. A handsome loving cup will go to the team winning next Sunday's contest.

THE BRITISH CALIFORNIA soccer players slipped one over on the Golden State when they defeated the "All Californians" at the stadium last Sunday.

It seems that they did it rather easily, too, putting up a fine display of football. They are a faster and cleverer team than the Californians, they combine better, play their position better, and shoot better. Besides, they are a younger team, taking much of which explains in a measure, their easy victory of three goals to none.

The game, of course, was purely an exhibition contest. Sunday afternoon at the St. Ignace high school, San Francisco, the British Columbia boys will again play the California "All Stars" for the Portola silver trophy and medals. So this game will be a real contest. The California selection committee, has rearranged the lineup somewhat, having weeded out the players who did not show to advantage last Wednesday. Those dropped were Percy King, Halley and Somers, their places being taken by Simpson, McLellan, Matthews, and Townes. It is believed by the inclusion of these men, the Californians will be strengthened materially and will form a better working combination.

The teams will face each other as follows—British Columbia—Sharpe, goal; Marshall and Sutherland, fullbacks; Ted, Thorpe and McLellan, halfbacks; Picknell, Matthews, Tomlinson, Grant and Matthews, forwards. All California—McFarlane, goal; Simpson and Hunter, fullbacks; Adams, Perkins and McKiernan, halfbacks; Duncan, Townes, Drake, Baldwin and Pike, forwards. Referee—James Askan. Linesmen—Wardlaw and Leith.

The game will start at 2:30 p. m. After the contest the cup and medals will be presented on the field and as this is the only soccer game scheduled for the day, a record crowd is anticipated.

TEN THOUSAND SEE STADIUM GAMES

Ten thousand people are attending the Portola championship games at Golden Gate Park stadium today. Three hundred athletes are competing. One of the most interesting contests of the day is the 100-yard dash, in which Bob Byrd, Blight of St. Mary's college, J. A. Powers of Boston, record holder, and among the entries.

The world's champions will compete. Fred W. Kelly of the University of Southern California, who won the high jumper at the Olympic games in Stockholm last year, will run in both hurdles races and will also compete in the 100 yards. Kelly is a fast sprinter and in the 100 yards he won the 110 yards in 9.4 seconds. George Horine, holder of the world's record jump of 6 feet 7 inches in the high jump, will also be a competitor.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR AUSTRALASIA TO PRODUCE TEAM

Famous Developing Ground for Athletes to Compete at Berlin.

"Australasia has produced athletes and exponents of British national games equal and often superior to the best in other lands. At present Australasia has the champion professional runner of the world."

Why not the champion amateur? This comments a writer in the Sydney Referee as an argument in favor of raising the $50,000 to properly equip and train a band of athletes to take part in the Olympic games to be held in Berlin, Germany in 1936.

And from present indications the sum will be raised without trouble. Continuing his comment, the Australian writer says: "Australasia possesses athletes capable of defeating Leander, the Olympic winners."

Australasia is represented in America and in France by several of the greatest speed cyclists of the country—men who are at least equal to the best on the continent and in some cases, as a result of corresponding caliber?

Does Australasia not claim the world's champion in lawn tennis, as well as Norman Brookes?

Australasia rugby union footballers—All Blacks and Wallabies—have beaten England on their own fields. And three times have they won the Ashes.

The answer to all these questions is that Australasia does possess the talent, some cases highly developed in some of its athletes, and in some cases, as a result of corresponding caliber?

The answer is Lack of systematized organization due to the want of funds. Germany, America, Sweden and other countries have already set to work to build up their Olympic teams. As a result of large endowments for the purpose.

England is at last awakening to the necessity of making an organized effort to get together a team capable of regaining their athletic prestige. But in the meantime, the fund, $50,000, is being subscribed by the athletes, the press, and athletic bodies, and is meeting with splendid support from wealthy and patriotic men.

England is at last awakening to the necessity of making an organized effort to get together a team capable of regaining their athletic prestige. But in the meantime, the fund, $50,000, is being subscribed by the athletes, the press, and athletic bodies, and is meeting with splendid support from wealthy and patriotic men.

The answer is Lack of systematized organization due to the want of funds. Germany, America, Sweden and other countries have already set to work to build up their Olympic teams. As a result of large endowments for the purpose.

Billy Fitz Says he:

ALTER SCHALLER, having discovered that the quickest way to popularity in California is via the "Alley of Swat," is making up for lost time. Right now, Mr. Schaller, in point of popularity, is second only to Queen Conchita. Some are born great, some have greatness thrust upon them and some fellows just biff the pill into an unrecognizable corpse. Mr. Schaller is of the latter variety. His homer in the eleventh, scoring Johnston ahead of him, beat the Tigers yesterday and left the Seal rosters still grinning over first division possibilities. The day before Mr. Schaller hit the ball and copped $50, and the day before he pounded out a triple and then a double the day before that. Also he has whanged out four home runs in four weeks, which is whanging without a doubt. It's the best thing Schaller does.

The Wolves appear to have the Indian sign on Harry Krause, the Portland south wheeler. They put an end to the pitcher's string of nine scraps by beating him in the twelfth inning at Sacramento yesterday afternoon, 3-2. By trimming the Ducks while the Tigers were losing an extra inning game across the bay, Wolverson's men moved into the second berth.

The last time Krause was beaten before he started his winning streak, the Wolves turned the trick on September 1.

There is a $500 bounty awaiting Harry Wolverson if the Wolves finish in second place.

By winning the next three games, the Seals will emerge into first division. Del Howard plans to use Overman today and Panning on Sunday afternoon. That means that Burdett, Henley, Baker, on Standridge will work tomorrow morning, and against this entry Hogan will play.

Perit was no puzzle to the Oaks yesterday. The Oaks batted out a 6 to 2 victory. Killian held the Angels to one run in the eighth and allowed two runs in the ninth and tenth. The Seals and the Oaks are in the eighth and ninth in the ninth a brace of hits were good for a run.

Joe Rivers, the Mexican lightweight, and Louis Cross, the New York boxer, were matched by Promoter Tom McCarry of Los Angeles for a twenty-round engagement on Turkey Day at Vernon. In bringing the match he anticipated that Tom inserted a statement that in the event either of the principals was beaten by any lesser light during the period of the fight, he would be paid $10,000.

NOVEL EXHIBIT FOR ALAMEDA CO.

Products and Manufacturers' Exhibits to Be Housed in Special Building.

"What we don't manufacture in Alameda county. Why not?" This is the title of a novel exhibition being prepared by Frederic Boegle Jr., secretary of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The exhibit is to be one of the features of the permanent exhibit of Alameda county's factory products, to be installed as soon as possible, possibly in a building of its own. The peculiar exhibit is to be composed of goods which could be manufactured here.

each different object will be figures compiled by Boegle showing why such a manufacture would pay on the coast. "It seems to me," declared Boegle, "that this will show our business men their opportunities. To show Alameda county's products is most important, but to show what more the county is capable of is more important. I hope the exhibit will decrease, for as any new factory starts to manufacture here, it will show this 'Why' exhibit." The permanent exhibit of the manufacturers has been under consideration for some time. Application was made to install it in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, but, on the ground of lack of space, the directors found it necessary to refuse this. It was requested that a building be allowed adjoining the chamber, but building restrictions under city laws forbade any but a "class A" structure here. It had been planned to erect a model bungalow for the manufacturers. It is now probable that other quarters will be sought, perhaps in the Hotel Oakland. A duplicate of the exhibit is to be made for shipment to exhibitions and fairs.

ATTORNEYS WOULD FIX HIGHER TAX ON ESTATE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Centering their attack on the value of the 200-acre La Brea ranch, the largest property of the estate, Attorney-General Webb and State Inheritance Attorney Waring have renewed their re-appraisal of the estate to Mrs. Ida Hancock Ross to fix a greater inheritance tax.

CUPID FINDS EASY VICTIMS IN HOTEL'S SPOONING ROOM

Cupid, who needs silence, solitudes and half lights to get in his best work, has hitherto had little opportunity at the Hotel Oakland. The long lobby with its many seats and upholstered divans would be lovely for his purpose—but for the crowds and the chandeliers. Wherefore the "Spoonng Room" has been decided on.

It wasn't really intended for a "Spoonng Room" when the hotel management decided to remodel the "Blue Room," now a writing room. The management merely decided that the place didn't look comfortable and home-like, so they cut down the lights and put in some seats. The result was magical, sentimental couples with soulful eyes have haunted the place and now "Spoonng Room" is its name.

Never a bellboy rushed through the room "paging" wanted guests. In the "Spoonng Room" is solitude and peace—and also Cupid. He is polishing up his arrows, testing out his bow and getting ready for business. Dances will be his particular hunting times. No romances have been reported as yet, but who knows what may be in the near future.

judging from indications as seen from behind curtains, the truth may come out. Anyway, the "Spoonng Room" is a popular institution.

WILSON OPPOSES VANDERLIP PLAN

Dislikes Substitute for Administration Currency Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—President Wilson is uncompromisingly opposed to the currency bill submitted by Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank of New York, as a substitute for the administration plan.

The President let it be known that he was earnestly and unqualifiedly in favor of the main features of the administration bill. He declared that he believed that the plan provided in the House bill was in every way suited to the existing conditions of the country and was calculated to render the business men of the country a great service.

The Vanderlip plan, which contemplates a central bank under government control was reported today to have the endorsement of three Democratic Senators and five Republicans, a majority of the Senate committee.

With the government central bank plan proposed yesterday by Frank A. Vanderlip available as an amendment to the administration currency bill, the Senate Banking Committee hurried along its hearings today. H. Parker Willis of New York, who acted as expert for the committee in the preparation of the administration bill, was the principal witness today. He defended the measure generally.

In the Jackson party, are Charles S. Hayden, senior member of the Boston banking firm of Hayden, Stone & Company, who is associated with Jackson in his numerous mining enterprises; Charles W. McNell of New York, president of the Butte and the Utah Copper companies, and K. R. Babbitt of New York, general counsel for the Jackson-Hayden properties.

Preston is backed by Representative Kent and acknowledges that he is not a candidate for Governor and Kent for
